SENSATIONS IN CRIME.

PITTSBURG DEVELOPMENTS THAT SHOW SERIOUS DOUBTS

Upon the Guilt of a Colored Girl Now in Prison—Betrayed by a Mock Marriage and Poisoned—The Coolidge Case—Selected Sins.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 3.—What promises to be one of the most sensational cases ever developed in this vicinity was brought to light Monday. On Oct. 20, Professor J. W. White, of Duff's college, residing at 122 Elm street, after eating a hearty supper was suddenly taken ill, and has been in a serious condition ever since. The symptoms were those of poisoning. Though the attending physicians have told Mr. White and his wife that he was suffering from congestion of the liver, it is rumored, and the physicians will not deny that Mr. White's illness was caused by poison. On the day Mr. White took sick his wife was absent from home, and the evening meal was prepared by a servant girl since discharged, named Bridget Morgan, who, it now appears, was one of the three girls employed by the Deroy family, whose little boy was poisoned a few months ago, for which crime Mary Allen is now serving a sentence in the Western penitentiary.

The case has excited much public interest. W. D. Moore, one of the attorneys in the Mary Allen case, said: "Bridget Morgan was a witness in the Deroy case, and was the one that prepared the porridge the night before, which the girl Mary Allen had cooked and fed to the child. I don't know what made me think it, but the moment I began to cross-examine her I felt satisfied that she was the guilty party and ought to be in Mary Allen's place."

Coroner Dressler also says that his suspicions had been aroused when he was examining the girl, and that he believed her guilty of poisoning the child. The present whereabouts of the servant girl is not now known. It is said that an investigation of the White poisoning will lead to some new and startling revelations in the Mary Allen case, and probably result in the release of Mary from the penitentiary.

The Mock Marriage Ceremony Again.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 3.—The Union-Chattanooga special says: A most startling sensation was divulged Monday at Spring City, this state. Miss Sallie Newby, a beautiful young lady of that place, died about two weeks ago very mysteriously. The facts regarding her death were suppressed and not until now did the truth become known. On her dying bed she told her terrible secret to her family physician under his promise to guard her confession sacredly, but he was prevailed upon to disclose the truth. For some months past a young man named Joe Hicks had been paying devoted attentions to the young lady. He persuaded her into a secret marriage under pretense that his mother would oppose the match. He inveigled her into an adjoining county, and with the assistance of a confederate, had a mock ceremony performed. About a month afterward he began administering medicine and the young girl gradually wasted away. When it was too late she discovered she had been murdered by slow poison and died in convulsions. The villian who accomplished her ruin has fled the country.

The Coolidge-Mellon Case.

BOSTON, Mass., Nov. 3.—The grand jury began its monthly session Monday morning. The first case brought up was the Mellen-Coolidge murder conspiracy matter. Chief Inspector Hanscom and Mr. Schlesinger, clerk of the Revere house, were first put before the jury to testify. The jury then called for the other witnesses and "Boss" Cob, James Donahue, alias "John Bull," Inspectors Garraughty, Watts, and Houghton testified. The entire morning session was occupied with this case and the jury did not finish it until 2 o'clock. It is believed that a bill has been found against Mrs. Coolidge and Mr. Mellen, but definite information can not now be obtained. The governor states that he knows nothing of the case and will examine into it before he calls on the governor of Maryland to give up Mr. Mellen.

The Walkup Case.

EMPORIA, Kan., Nov. 3.—In the Walkup case Monday was taken up by the opening address of Judge Sterry for the prosecution, which viewed the case for the benefit of the jury.

Valuable Cargo Lost.

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 3.—Particulars have been received here of the wreck of the Hudson Bay company's vessel, Princess Royal, about twenty miles from Moose Factory, Hudson bay. The news was brought by Indians across the country. The Princess Royal had delivered her cargo of supplies for the company's posts brought from England and at once reloaded with the usual cargo of furs. A fierce gale sprang up and three cables were insufficient to hold her against it. In consequence she was driven on the bar and quickly broke in two. The cargo was worth $1,000,000. Her crew all escaped.

Went to Work with His Gang.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Ferdinand Ward, the ex-financier and at present stove-maker at Sing Sing prison, went to work at daybreak Monday morning at his newly acquired trade with the other members of his gang. He went to his task in an apparently cheerful mood, and was soon filing off the rough edges and imperfections of the castings and putting them together, under the instructions of a foreman. He proves an apt scholar, and it is expected in a few days he will be able to do his day's work in a proper manner.

Six Men Lost at Sea.

NEW LONDON, Conn., Nov. 3.—An explosion took place on a dredge towed by the tug C. C. Waite while on route from this city to Providence Sunday night about 11 o'clock. The dredge sank rapidly and its crew of six men were lost. Their names are: Capt. Robert Kent, of Providence; Mate Strobs, Steward Strobs and Deckhand Sandy. The fireman and a deckhand, name unknown, were also lost. The cause of the explosion can not be learned, but it is supposed it occurred in the steam-pump boilers.

The Pennsylvania Reduces Dividends.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 3.—The Pennsylvania railroad dividend was reduced to 2 per cent. Monday. This was a surprise to many who had fully expected that it would be 3 per cent. It was declared only after a long discussion in the board, several of the directors favoring passing this dividend altogether, while others held out for maintaining the 3 per cent. rate. The 2 per cent. rate was decided upon as a compromise.

Some Stolen Confederate Cash.

ATHENS, Ga., Nov. 3.—Wilkes county is greatly excited over the discovery of $20,000 in silver coin on the plantation of John Chenault. It revives the story of the Confederate treasury train which was robbed near that place.

Prentice & Evenson will refund the price paid if Acker's Blood Elixir does not relieve any skin or blood disorder. A new, but thoroughly tested discovery

Insanity is on the increase. Statistics show this. Many cases are brought on by overwork, anxiety, excitement, metal trouble and nervous prostration; it is also inherited. Invariably sleepless and constipation manifest themselves before one becomes insane. Constipation induces dyspepsia, jaundice, bad breath, piles, low spirits, headache, etc. Dr. Jones' Red Clover Tonic relieves constipation, thereby curing these diseases. Price, 50 cents. By druggists.

A FAMINE IN NAILS.

The Long Strike Exhausts the Supply and There's a Boom Now.

WAREHAM, Mass., Nov. 3.—The Parker Mills nail works began operations in full blast Monday morning. Over 200 workmen are employed. Extensive arrangements are being made by the company to place several more machines in the mill. Word comes to Wareham from Pittsburg, the center of the industry in this country, that nails, which are getting much the larger share of the general boom, are rapidly advancing in price; that in fact there is a famine in nails, the result of the long strike of the nailers. It is almost impossible to get nails at $3.10 per keg for assorted qualities, and large dealers have to take up with small lots of twenty-five or fifty kegs. Eastern manufacturers are receiving large orders which they do not seem anxious to fill. They are kept busy supplying the home trade. They ask for a guarantee that if they raise wages now the workmen will be willing to accede to a reduction when prices become lower, as they inevitably will when the western mills get under full headway.

Announced an Advance of Wages.

MT. CARMEL, Pa., Nov. 3.—The operators of the Sunbury Nail works Monday morning announced an advance in the wages of nailers and feeders of 10 per cent. dating from Nov. 1. The demand is so brisk that the Northumberland mills were compelled to decline an order for 50,000 kegs.

THE OCTOBER TREASURY REPORT.

The National Debt Reduced $13,000,000—Receipts and Expenditures.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 3.—The debt statement, issued Monday, shows a reduction of the public debt during the month of October amounting to $13,370,774. The total debt now, less $66,315 292 not cash reported in the treasury, is $1,447,657,588, and of this amount $1,269,778,103 is interest-bearing debt. The treasurer's statement shows a gold coin, bullion, and gold certificate balance of $142,888,589, or $9,225,205 more than a month ago, and a standard silver dollar and silver certificate balance of $74,511,106, or $1,232,021 less than a month ago.

Customs receipts for October amounted to $16,142,980, against $15,133,173 in October, 1884. Internal revenue receipts were $11,370,835, against $9,629,733 in October a year ago; and the miscellaneous receipts were $1,359,039, against $1,376,515 in October, 1884. The total receipts from all sources for the first four months of the current fiscal year amount to $113,675,435, against $126,050,059 for the corresponding months of 1884, a falling off of nearly $3,500,000; while the expenditures during the first four months of the current year were $95,022,486 or nearly $7,000,000 less than during the corresponding months of 1884.

EXECUTED A SAFE RETREAT.

Fenians and Nationalists Hold a Little Donnybrook Fair.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—On Sunday night, while Messrs. James O'Kelly and Joseph M. Kenny, members of parliament for Roscommon and Ennis, respectively, were leaving Dysart, Scotland, they were attacked by a body of men armed with sticks, who shouted: "To hell with the National league! Three cheers for the Fenians!" The assault was resisted by a body of Nationalists acting as an escort to Messrs. O'Kelly and Kenny and for a time the battle raged furiously. The assailants proved too much for the Nationalists, however, and the latter finally fled, leaving the Fenians masters of the field. Several of the Nationalists were seriously injured. Messrs. Kenny and O'Kelly executed a safe retreat to the village where they remained until morning.

The Nephew of His Uncle.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—A Washington special says: A poor, shambling figure with badly bruised face and clothes in tatters stood in the police court Monday morning. No charge was made against him. He was not asked by the clerk, guilty or not guilty. Judge Snell did not ask him his name. No witness appeared in the stand. His appearance was his own accuser and witness. "I came back from New York last Friday. I am weak and in a bad condition," said the miserable wreck, "and I wish, judge, that you would send me to the hospital instead of the workhouse." "Thirty days at the hospital," said Judge Snell, and the man in the dock disappeared.

It was George H. Butler, the nephew of his uncle, once consul general to Egypt, and husband of Rose Eytinge, the actress.

Governor Pierce on Dakota.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 3.—"The population of Dakota territory," says Governor Pierce in his annual report, "has now reached 436,000, as against 135,180 in 1880." The report states that the farmers were never more prosperous, and the material interests of the territory have advanced wonderfully within the past few years. The governor recommends that Dakota be admitted to the sisterhood of states; that the school lands be protected from squatters, and that the Crow Creek Indian reservation be cut up and the land given to the Indians in severalty. The financial condition of the territory is said to be excellent, and the tax levy is but 3 mills on the dollar.

Mapleson Moves Against the Star System.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The Academy of Music was thronged on the opening night of the Mapleson opera season. "Carmen" was excellently rendered with Minnie Hauk, Mlle. Dotti, Signors Delpuente and Ravelli in the principal roles. Mme. Cavalazzi was warmly welcomed. Col. Mapleson has done away with the star system and improved the ensemble of his operas, adding greatly to their attraction, and it is the opinion of competent judges that the colonel has made a wise move in doing so. He will undoubtedly profit largely by it in the end.

Only One Man on Board.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 3.—Dr. Gregory is the only member of the civil service commission. The resignations of Commissioners Eaton and Thoman took effect Sunday. Commissioner Eaton was asked as to the truth of a report that the acceptance of his resignation will be withdrawn and that he will continue to serve. Mr. Eaton replied that his connection with the commission was at an end and that he would not hold over.

The "Charioteeress" Won.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—In the contest between Nellie Burke's running team, Marvin B. and Little Billy, hitched to a chariot, Murphy's Dubarry and Ghost, and Snyder's A. L. C. and J. O. Nay, the last two teams hitched to skeleton wagons, Miss Burke's team won the best two out of three heats in 2:17¼ and 2:23.

No Parnellism About Gladstone.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—Mr. Gladstone has written to the newspapers to say that in cases where two Liberal candidates contest the same seat he declines to pronounce in favor of either. He prefers that the constituency shall decide which should be elected.

The average length of life is on the increase. The science of medicine has made great progress; many diseases are now controlled that were formerly thought incurable. The greatest discovery is Dr. Bigelow's Positive Cure, which cures consumption in stages that other remedies are of no benefit. Coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, bronchitis and all throat and lung diseases speedily and safely. Price, 50 cents and $1.00 by druggists.

Height 22 in. Length of base 16½ in. Depth, from front of base, 12 in. Weight when packed, 150 lbs. "Ha! I like not that!"—This design is taken from Shakespeare's play of Othello. Cassio had been placed in command, but having disgraced himself in a drunken quarrel, Othello had taken the command from him. Presuming on his long acquaintance with Desdemona, Othello's bride, he repeatedly asked her to intercede, and try to restore him to her husband's good graces. Iago is jealous because Othello has secured a prize he had hoped to win for himself, and while walking in the garden they suddenly come upon Desdemona and Cassio, partly concealed from sight, in one of these interviews. As the latter hear them approaching, Desdemona asks Cassio to stay and meet Othello, and they will urge his suit together; but he declines, and takes his leave of her. Iago discerns them at this moment, and excites Othello's suspicion by exclaiming "Ha! I like not that!"

W. W. Hall, M. D., the editor of the Journal of Health published in New York, and a recognized authority on medical subjects, has the following to say of medicines used for coughs:

"The remedies for coughs, colds and consumption are innumerable, the combinations of ingredients are infinite; but if the reader is observant, he will find not one in a hundred will there be, which does not contain Opium in the form of Paregoric, Laudanum or Morphia, producing every year water on the brain in multitudes of children and apoplexies, or ruinous results to the digestive organs of adults. Intelligent druggists know that all medicines sold for coughs, colds, consumption, and tickling in the throat, contain Opium in some form or other. They repress the cough, but do not eradicate it; hence the first purchase paves the way for a second or third, and as it is the essential nature of Opium to close up, to deaden the sensibilities—constipation is induced, and becomes the immediate cause of three-fourths of all ordinary ailments, such as headache, neuralgia, dyspepsia and piles."

We give our positive guarantee that COLLIN'S CHERRY COUGH CURE contains no Chloroform, Tartar Emetic, preparations of Opium, or other Narcotic, and may be administered to children with perfect safety. Unlike the Opium Cough Medicines generally sold, which lend but momentary relief at the expense of enfeebling the patient, it is a remedy that does not dry up a cough and leave the disease behind it, but strikes directly at the cause; carries off all the phlegm accumulated in the Lungs and Throat, and heals them. BEING THE CALCULATIONS OF POLITICAL MANAGERS

As to Which Side the Freeman's Ballot Will Fall Upon—How the Betting Goes on New York—October Politically Dead—Notes.

BUFFALO, Nov. 3.—Betting on the state, city and county elections is quite spirited. On the contest for governor the betting favors Hill 6 to 4; for state senator, McMillan, Republican, and for mayor, Becker, Republican, lead. The outlook from a neutral standpoint indicates the election of the Republican candidates, with the exception of those for sheriff and judge of the superior court. For the latter place ex-Senator Titus appears to be leading.

LATER.—The betting, Monday night, at the hotels, clubs and other public resorts on the election in this state is about even on the candidates of the two parties. It is evidently the opinion of the people who have kept themselves posted that the election is likely to be very close, and, consequently, there is little disposition to place large odds on either side. In the hall of the Hoffman house, early in the evening, $1,000 to $800 was somewhat freely offered on Davenport. A Maiden Lane iron merchant, who is prominent in Democratic councils, took three such bets in succession, and this seemed to have a modifying effect upon the odds, for when ex-Sheriff Jimmy O'Brien a few moments later offered to take all bets made at the above figures, there were no offers. O'Brien then made several bets at $500 even.

Later on there were three bets of $1,000 on Hill to $900 for Davenport. These were quickly taken by Sam Ash. Ed Cahill subsequently made several bets of $500 to $450 in favor of Hill. Some allowance may, perhaps, be made in considering these bets for the fact of the Hoffman house being a Democratic stronghold.

At the Gilsey house, the gathering place of the Republican forces, there was more confidence shown on the other side in the bets. The odds here were about $1,000 to $800 on Davenport all the evening, and though the transactions were not large, they were numerous enough to aggregate a considerable sum. In all places where there was, so to speak, no special atmosphere favoring either party's claims, the only just estimate that can be made is that the betting was practically even.

Wagons carrying signs displaying the names of the various candidates for office were a conspicuous feature of street traffic Monday, and in the evening their places were taken by transparencies bearing the same legends. Many of the drivers of these wagons also acted as ticket peddlers. It is estimated that 30,000,000 tickets were distributed through these and the other agencies for this purpose in the city Monday. The expense of printing and distributing them is estimated at not less than $100,000. The Democratic organizations defray all the cost of their tickets. The Republican general committee, however, furnish only the state and county tickets, the local tickets being provided by the candidates themselves.

At a late hour at night the Democratic state committee sent out as its last document an estimate giving Hill 51,000 plurality in this county and 9,000 in Kings county. They allow Davenport 33,000 plurality in the state outside of those two counties, leaving Hill's plurality in the entire state 28,000. The Republicans have not issued an estimate on their side, but at their headquarters they confidently predict 29,000 plurality for Davenport in the entire state.

Skullduggery in Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 3.—On the eve of the state election there was no excitement whatever, on account of the result of last Wednesday's municipal election, which seems to have knocked a big hole in the bottom of the Independent movement. The one thing that is absorbing attention now is the fact that about 7 o'clock, Monday evening, all the poll-books in the Sixteenth ward belonging to the Independent challengers were made away with. They were in charge of a man named Pistol, and were stolen from a coffee house where he was getting some oysters. The detectives are diligently searching for them, but at midnight no trace of their whereabouts has been discovered.

Outlook in Iowa.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—The Times Waterloo, Iowa, special says: The campaign which closed in Iowa to-night has been a short one, but has been contested stubbornly by both parties, and it is difficult to make a forecast of the result which can be relied upon for several reasons. It promises, however, to be a counterpart of the Ohio election, as the main strength of the Democratic canvass has been especially directed toward the legislature, and the state ticket has been allowed to take care of itself to a certain extent. Those best informed concede Democratic gains on the legislative ticket, while the election of Larrabee, Republican, for governor is generally conceded.

Not Interested in Politics.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 3.—The oldest employes in the departments say there has never been a year when so few clerks have gone home to vote as this year. The greatest interest is taken in the contests in New York and Virginia, but the Republican clerks have thought it prudent to remain at their desks, and as yet there are comparatively few Democrats in the departments. The Democrats having votes in Maryland, Virginia and New York have generally gone home, but there are many who have not. Mr. Jordan and Assistant Secretary Fairchild are still here. Mr. Fairchild is paired with Mr. Coon and some others who could not get away.

No More October States.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 3.—The state canvassing board Monday afternoon canvassed the vote of the state on the constitutional amendments. The total vote of the state is 743,453. The vote for the first amendment was, 368,858; the second, 236,573; the third, 334,060, and the fourth 460,118. They were all declared carried by a proclamation issued subsequently by the governor. The effect will be to change the time of holding the state election from October to November and to cause the boards of township trustees to be elected for three years, instead of one year. Ohio was the last October state.

Claims in Virginia.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—The Times has specials which say of the Virginia election that Senator Mahone estimates Wise's majority in Virginia at from 6,000 to 8,000. The Democratic leaders claim that Lee will be elected by from 8,000 to 10,000 majority.

The President at Home.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 3.—The president, accompanied by Wilson S. Bissell and E. W. Stedman arrived in this city at 12:20 Monday morning. A large crowd was at the depot and greeted the president with cheers. He shook hands with all within reach and was then driven to Mr. Bissell's residence, where he will remain during his stay in Buffalo.

Cameron Home to Vote.

HARRISBURG, Pa., Nov. 3.—Senator Cameron arrived at his home in this city Monday afternoon. He declined to be interviewed upon any subject of public interest aside from his pleasant trip to California.

FROM THE QUEEN CITY.

Warrants for Election Officers—Coming Down on Sunday Amusements.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Nov. 3.—Officer John Clear has sworn out warrants at the police court for the arrest of Edward Dacrett, L. D. Fletcher and N. Roberts, judges of election of Precinct C, of the Fifth ward on a charge of receiving the vote of A. H. Bugher, who had not registered. The matter was called to the attention of the Committee of One Hundred, who, however, failed to prosecute Bugher. Now the city authorities will prosecute the election judges for accepting his ballot and depositing it in the ballot-box.

The judges and clerks of election arrested last week on the charge of failing to properly sign the tally-sheets of the Fourth ward, waived examination Monday morning before Justice Martin, and were bound over in $200 each.

The Law and Order league has sworn out warrants against one member of each of the companies which played at Harris' museum, Harlin's, and the Vine Street Opera house. They are returnable before Squire Lowry. It was learned from a member of the league that it is the intention to have a more considerable number of players arrested this week than last, and if the managements persist in giving entertainments, arrests will be multiplied, and imprisonment insisted upon as a penalty to be inflicted by the court.

HIS MOTHER EARTH

RECEIVES THE BODY OF ANOTHER WAR VETERAN.

"Little Mac" Receives the Last Tributes of Honor and Love.

A Very Simple and Unostentatious Funeral—No Beat of Drum or Funeral Dirge at the Obsequies—Service in the Church.

The Dead McClellan.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—At 10 o'clock Monday morning the body of Gen. George B. McClellan was removed from the house of Mr. W. C. Prime, in East Twenty-third street, to the Madison Square Presbyterian church, where the funeral services were performed by the pastor, the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst. Although the morning broke dark and gloomy, with occasional bursts of rain, yet hundreds of people gathered early in the neighborhood of the church and Mr. Prime's house. Squads of police officers began to arrive early and were placed in position to preserve order. Two hundred and fifty men were deployed in lines extending from Mr. Prime's house to the church, two blocks away, while other officers guarded the church doors and the passages leading to them. No one, not even the intimate friends of the family, were admitted within the doors of the Prime mansion, and only the family and pall-bearers were present, when, reverently and with tender hands, the black-cloth covered casket, upon which rested a sheaf of wheat and a few immortelles, was lifted and slowly borne to the street. On either hand were the pall-bearers, consisting of Gen. W. S. Hancock, Gen. Fitz John Porter, Gen. W. B. Franklin, Gen. J. E. Johnston, Gen. Anson G. McCook, Gen. Martin T. McMahon, S. L. Barlow, the Hon. W. C. Kelsey, Col. Edward H. Wright, Thatcher W. Adams, William C. Prime, the Hon. A. S. Hewitt, John T. Agnew, and W. C. Alsop. Behind the pall-bearers followed Mrs. McClellan, Miss Mary McClellan, and Max McClellan, Capt. Arthur McClellan, Gen. Murray and the family servants.

In this order the cortege left the house and was met outside by the state commandery of the Loyal Legion of the United States and the representatives of Meagher's Irish brigade, which served under Gen. McClellan. Both of these organizations preceded the body to Madison avenue, where, between open ranks, the funeral cortege passed into the church and up the aisle, where stood the officiating clergyman.

The church was filled in every part and prominent men were seen everywhere. Among them were Governor Abbett, of New Jersey; ex-Governor Ludlow, of New Jersey; Gen. Lloyd Aspinwall, Gen. C. P. Stone, Whitelaw Reid, Gen. Averill, Judge Shipman, Gens. Webb, Wilson and Hamilton. John Jacob Astor, and Gens. Sanger, Cochrane, Sloeum, Banks, Molineux Swayne, Graham and Wainwright. George Washington Post G. A. R., of which the deceased was a member, was also present.

The church was without decorations or emblems of mourning save a few flowers at the altar. The services were of the simplest description, not occupying half an hour. "Jesus, Lover of My Soul," the hymn Gen. McClellan best liked, was sung, after which prayer was offered by the Rev. Dr. Parkhurst, and the 15th chapter of First Corinthians was read by the Rev. Dr. Whittaker. The final rites were conducted in the simplest manner.

When the service was ended the undertaker's assistants placed the coffin on their shoulders and marched slowly down the aisle to the door. The congregation remained standing until the pall-bearers and the members of the bereaved family had left the building.

Outside the church the street was lined with people. The police maintained good order. The family, the delegation of neighbors from Orange, and the committee of the Loyal Legion took carriages and were driven to the Pennsylvania railroad depot, where a special train stood waiting to receive the party. At noon the train steamed out of the depot for Trenton, where the burial took place.

As the funeral procession moved from the church to the depot it was received with marked respect by the people who hurried along the sidewalk. Hats were lifted, and many a tear fell from the eyes of veterans who once served under the dead general.

The simplicity of the procession was noticeable. Nothing about it gave any indication whatever of the dead hero. There were no uniforms in line, no bands of music, no draped colors. The funeral procession, so far as any outward display was concerned, might have been that of any well-to-do citizen.

NEW YORK Nov. 3.—All the public buildings in Jersey City were closed at 10 o'clock, Wednesday morning, out of respect to the memory of Gen. McClellan, and flags were flying at half mast. Private residences were draped in mourning. In Hoboken all the public buildings were closed and schools dismissed by order of Mayor Tilden. Judge McGill, of the supreme court of Hudson county, adjourned the court at noon.

Gen. Grant's Evil Genius.

LONDON News, Nov. 3.—The Daily News contains an editorial article on Ferdinand Ward, in which it calls him the evil genius of Gen. Grant. The article also points out that Ward's sentence of ten years imprisonment is wonderfully inadequate punishment for the crimes of which he is guilty. At the expiration of his comparatively short term Ward will enjoy his millions, while others less guilty will still suffer.

Will Consider Grecian Matters.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 3.—The Balkan conference, which has met here, will consider among the first questions the attitude of Greece, which is causing much uneasiness. The Turkish military preparations continue with unabated vigor, and are conducted apparently upon the assumption that the conference will not succeed in preventing war.

We desire to build up a home trade in

Buckwheat Flour,

And we guarantee that all Buckwheat Flour sold from these mills shall be made from Pure Buckwheat, and shall contain no other ingredient.

Our Graham Flour

Is made from thoroughly cleaned, Choice, White Winter Wheat. Graham Flour takes its name from Sylvester Graham, the author of a noted treatise on "Bread and Bread Making." It is conceded that bread made from unbolted or Graham Flour, is more healthful and nutritious than fine, white bolted flour, for the reason that it contains more of the gluten, from which the flesh, bone, brain and tissue of the body is built up and sustained.

The whitest and most beautiful bread found upon the tables of the critical American, contains less of the elements of

STRENGTH, HEALTH AND BEAUTY

Than the dark colored rye bread in Germany, or the heavy loaves found in the knap-sacks of the Russian soldier. Graham bread made from good, clean wheat is very excellent and healthful food. We propose to make and sell this kind of flour.

Corn Meal.

as a staple article of diet in the Eastern and Southern States, and should be more generally used here. Is there a Yankee in the face of the earth, who has wandered so far from the hills of New England, that he has forgotten the baked pork and beans, the rye and the Indian cake bread, or the baked Indian pudding with which his heart and stomach were gladdened during the days of his boyhood. Hoe cake, Johnny cake, corn-ash and milk, corn meal gems, and Indian meal puddings, with pork and bacon, were main articles of diet for the sturdy men and women who established and built up the older States of the Union. We offer to the trade, and families, both the bolted and granulated Corn Meal.

Especial attention is called to our

Minnesota Linseed Meal

It is excellent for dairy stock, and horses, when fed with other grain.

A QUESTION ABOUT Brown's Iron Bitters ANSWERED.

The question has probably been asked thousands of times, "How can Brown's Iron Bitters cure everything?" Well, it doesn't. But it does cure any disease for which a reputable physician would prescribe IRON. Physicians recognize Iron as the best restorative agent known to the profession, and inquiry of any leading chemical firm will substantiate the assertion that there are more preparations of iron than of any other substance used in medicine. This shows conclusively that iron is acknowledged to be the most important factor in successful medical practice. It is, however, a remarkable fact, that prior to the discovery of BROWN'S IRON BITTERS no perfect & satisfactory iron combination had ever been found. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS does not injure the teeth, cause headache, or produce constipation—all other iron medicines do. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS cures Indigestion, Biliousness, Weakness, Dyspepsia, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, Tired Feeling, General Debility, Pain in the Side, Back or Limbs, Headache and Neuralgia—for all these ailments Iron is prescribed daily. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS, however, does not cure in a minute. Like all other thorough medicines, it acts slowly. When taken by men the first symptom of benefit is renewed energy. The muscles then become firmer, the digestion improves, the bowels are active. In women the effect is usually more rapid and marked. The eyes begin at once to brighten; the skin clears up; healthy color comes to the cheeks; nervousness disappears; functional derangements become regular, and if a nursing mother, abundant sustenance is supplied for the child. Remember Brown's Iron Bitters is the ONLY iron medicine that is not injurious. Physicians and Druggists recommend it.

ACTION OF THE POWERS.

Bulgaria and Servia Called Upon to Disarm as a Preliminary.

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The ambassadors have reported to the powers the result of the preliminary conference meetings. The signatories of the treaty of Berlin have united in joint note to Bulgaria and Servia demanding the disarmament of the forces of the principalities as the first step to a consideration of the situation by the union of Eastern Roumelia and Bulgaria. The powers further call upon Prince Alexander and King Milan to give satisfactory assurances that they will abide by the decision of the conference. The conference will not reassemble until Servia and Bulgaria have replied to the joint note.

The conference has not called upon Turkey to restore the status quo as reported in some quarters and there will be no discussion of the demands of Turkey or the Russian proposals until the ground has been cleared by the reply of the principalities to the joint note.

Turkey has mobilized another 100,000 men of the reserve for active service in addition to the 180,000 men already in the field, excluding irregulars and reserves for garrison duty. The reserve division of Turkish iron clads has been ordered into commission and is refitting.

Austria Makes a Military Move.

VIENNA, Nov. 3.—Two of the railway companies whose lines extend toward the Balkan peninsula have been ordered to prepare 2,000 wagons for military transportation purposes. These instructions were accompanied by a hint from the Austrian government that the preparations should be carried out as quietly as possible. There is little doubt that Russian agents at Belgrade are secretly encouraging King Milan to persevere in the course he has adopted. They hint that he may make sure of Russian support and that he can succeed in placing Bosnia under Servian administration if he follows a line of action in accord with the wishes of the St. Petersburg authorities.

BERLIN, Nov. 3.—The North German Gazette, in an article Monday, warns Servia against provoking the Bulgarians.

Insane Pauper Burned to Death.

MARSHALL, Mo., Nov. 3.—The Saline county poor-house caught fire Monday morning about 5 o'clock and was entirely destroyed with the contents. The keeper as usual started the fire in the stoves and went to his breakfast. He started back, when, to his astonishment, he discovered smoke issuing from the windows and doors. Remembering there were two insane persons confined in the building he forced open the doors and one escaped but the other, an Irishman, noted for being the most powerful man over there, was considered dangerous and was kept locked up, perished. It is thought the fire originated in his room and by him.

The Woman's Temperance Union.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—The Woman's National Christian Temperance union has re-elected the following officers: Corresponding secretary, Mrs. Caroline B. Buell, of Connecticut; recording secretary, Mrs. Mary A. Woodbridge, of Ohio; assistant secretary, Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens, of Maine; treasurer, Miss Esther Pugh, of Ohio. A resolution reaffirming the St. Louis resolution indorsing the National Prohibition party was adopted after a heated debate, its opponents deprecating any meddling with politics.

Several Postmasters Relieved.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 3.—The president has appointed the following named presidential postmasters: Thomas J. Carroll, Bunker Hill, Ills.; W. S. Armstrong, Kokomo, Ind.; A. A. Sparks, Mt. Vernon, Ind.; Joshua Ernest, Sullivan, Ind.; Patrick Gibbons, Keokuk, Iowa; W. W. Slawson, Greenville, Mich.; Charles Holliday, St. Louis, Mich.; D. C. Stearns, Berea, Ohio; William Clevenger, Wilmington, Ohio; W. H. Mould, Baraboo, Wis.; O F. Blakeley, Darlington, Wis.; Alvin S. Marsh, Red Cloud, Neb.; T. S. Brokaw, Mt. Vernon, Iowa.

Prepare Your Turkeys.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 3.—The president has issued a proclamation fixing Thursday, Nov. 26, as Thanksgiving day. He calls on the people to assemble in their churches and give thanks to Almighty God for His manifold blessing during the past year; recommends family reunions, and especially urges the showing forth of gratitude by deeds of charity to those who are in need or distress.

Couch's Boomers Causing Trouble Again.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 3.—Advices from Indian territory say that the invasion of Couch's boomers is creating widespread alarm and fears are entertained of a collision between them and the Indian police. The United States troops in the territory are in readiness to expel the invaders, but are powerless to keep them out. The situation is one of gravity.

LIFE OF A SAILOR.

JACK'S PROBABLE EXPERIENCE ON THE GREAT INLAND SEAS.

Notes by an Observer, for the Benefit of Would-Be Runaway "Boys—Wheelman, Mate, Captain — Deck-Hands a Sorry Lot.

[Cor. Louisville Courier-Journal.]

Coming out of Chicago I had a chance to notice something of a sailor's life on the lakes. Life on the lakes in any capacity is desperately hard. A season is about nine months, from early spring till late fall. Thus all kinds of weather are experienced. Many of the boats do not lay up until December.

The regulations of the Cheltenham, our boat, are much the same as those of her sister boats. On her the watches began at 7 a. m., and were six hours each. The captain left everything to his two mates, standing no watch except when he chose or when he thought necessary. Of course there are several varieties of work on a boat. Let us, for the benefit of the boy who wants to run away to the great inland seas, see what these are and their requirements. Each large boat carries about twenty-three or twenty-four men—a captain, two wheelmen, two watchmen, two mates, two engineers, two firemen, two cooks, and eight or ten deckhands. A wheelman's task is tedious and laborious. He is given a course and told to keep it to a hair, which is saying a great deal in a few words, for a large boat is continually sheering off, even in calm weather, so that a continual twisting of the wheel is necessary. In rough weather two or three men have their hands full trying to keep the boat somewhere near her course. Once in while a big wave will strike the rudder, and around will come the wheel, throwing those who attempt to hold or stop it from one side of the pilot house to the other.

AT THE WHEEL.

I used to imagine that a wheelman had nothing to do but get his course, fasten his wheel with a rope, and then, leaning back in a chair, put his hat on the back of his head and puff away at the pipe, at the same time lazily turning the pages of a novel. Or, I thought, he might even double his feet under him and take a nap with the self-satisfying assurance that, having once gotten his course, he had done his whole duty and the vessel would appreciate the fact by behaving like a thing of sense and life. Boys, ye who want to run away and don a pair of flowing trousers and become free and easy sailors, pirates or captains, give ear. This ideal picture of the wheelman is all mist. I didn't notice in the wheel-house a single novel or lazy-back chair. There seemed to be a perfect scarcity of pipes also.

But I did notice that if a wheelman was wanted, the mate did not scruple to rouse him out of his bunk, even at 1 o'clock in the morning, no matter if it was very cold outside; and I also noticed that the man said nothing about "Yes, sir, I'll be there in a minute," or "Wait till I finish this nap." He came right out, and, taking his partner's place, held it for six weary hours amid a silence that would chill one. So, my boy, when you pick up your possessions in a red handkerchief and steal out of the back window of a dark night to run away to the lakes to become rich and famous, like "Billie, the Boy Whaler, or the King of the Quarter Deck," don't try wheeling.

Cabin boy? The lake steamers carry no cabin boys; the cook is the best they can afford in this line. But then there are the sailors, the men with pretty blue blouses with anchors at the shoulders, they who wear jaunty hats over one ear, "lay out on the yardarm," who sleep in hammocks and who sing—

I am a jolly tar, am I,
As free as an ocean-bird—

DECK-HANDS.

There are these men, surely? No, my son; on the lakes these noble men are scarcer than mountains in the Sahara desert. There may be a few sailors of this stamp on the stage, but that is the only place you'll find 'em. The lakes are sadly deficient. Those who correspond nearest to sailors on a steamship are the deck-hands, who are a sorry lot, indeed. Scum, my boy, scum. All the deck-hands I ever saw looked pretty much alike—an old pair of trousers, one suspender, an old hat, and a shirt and a coat which a tramp would scorn. And as for work—I hate to say so—but the captain or mate never seemed contented unless he had these ideal fellows sticking their hands in tar-buckets or paint-pots, or making them scrape down masts, tar down rigging or such like inviting tasks. The deck-hands of the lakes, my boy, are coal-heavers and cargo-handlers, and are, as a rule, a shiftless, indolent, lazy, riotous set, who have to be driven to work and watched like children, who seldom keep a place over one trip, and who have been known to come aboard a steamer, eat a couple of hearty meals and then run away.

But there are the mates! Correct, there are. Mates are men who have sailed years and years, and who, for being steady and principled, have been rewarded—with what? A mate's berth—a place of importance, to be sure, but one having in it all the mean, menial, dirty, tedious work of a deck-hand—and the responsibility of a captain. A mate, besides standing watch, has the immediate supervision of this mean, menial, dirty, tedious work aforesaid, and in many cases its performance, also. You pass, do you not, my son?

THE CAPTAIN'S HARD LOT.

But after all it is the captain of a lake vessel who fares the hardest. He must be up, day or night, coming through the rivers and wherever there is the least difficult navigation. He has some times to be up fifty hours on a watch. He has to see out every piece of bad weather if it lasts a day or a week. This is a part of his responsibility. Then perhaps he has twenty-odd lives on his hands, a $150,000 steamship and a valuable 2,000-ton cargo. Or if he has a tow he may have the care of over 100 lives and a million-odd dollars of property. This is another part of his responsibility. Besides, he must keep track of the internal workings of his ship, and if any one has a tendency to shirk duty, he must know it. So occasionally he will need lend a hand at painting and scrubbing, especially if his men are awkward or clumsy or need directions. On all steamers, captains, no matter what their age or dignity, are called the "old man" or the "skipper."

Is it hard to become a captain? That depends. Build a ship and you can command her, if you don't know a rudder from a mast, but try to work up so you can recommend yourself to others for the place, and the probabilities are that you would be twenty years in reaching your object.

So, my boy, any time you get dissatisfied with three meals a day and a home that compels you to split kindling every night, pack up that little red handkerchief and start for the lakes; but don't blame me if you return in a month or so with a telescoped spine, hands like hams and a burning desire to attack a wood-pile two hours every morning by way of amusement.

In Life's Decline

Infirmities beset us to which our youth and maturity were strangers. Weakness of the loins, rheumatic ailments, dyspepsia, loss of appetite and unquiet sleep, are among these. As a means of counteracting the infirmities of age, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is unrivalled. It quickens and enriches the sluggish and impoverished circulation, begets a hearty appetite and youthful relish for the food, and enables the stomach to digest it. It soothes and invigorates the nervous system and checks a tendency to rheumatism. Its quieting action upon the great sympathetic nerve, which connects the stomach with the brain, results in the speedy departure of the restlessness by night and disquietude by day, which are the reflected manifestations of dyspepsia. It is the most effectual antidote to the poison of malaria, gives a healthful impetus to the action of the kidneys and bladder, and is an admirable means of resuscitating vigor when impaired by overwork or other cause.

The Most Northern Town in the World.

[Foreign Letter in Commercial Gazette.]

At Hammerfest, the most northern town in the world, we spent two days, days of great delight; and here let me say that without our English we should have got along badly enough, for French and German are quite useless in the north countries; but to their credit be it said English is now taught (since five years, I believe) in all the public schools, so that we found nearly every one speak fairly good English. This little place, though treeless, is not ugly. We saw one poor mountain ash, which its owner was trying to keep alive, but the windows of every house were filled with wild flowers, and as they can never have them outside, they seem to vie with each other as to whose window can present the gayest appearance, and instead of curtains they had shelves, on which the pots of plants were placed. I may say that this same enthusiasm for flowers exists in a degree we who are accustomed to so many can hardly understand, among all classes, and not a fisherman's hut did we see but its most prized possession was the bright-colored plant in the window.

Hindoo Kindness to Animals.

[New Orleans Times-Democrat.]

The Hindoo religion enjoins one to be kind and merciful to all living creatures. To put to death any creature that has life is an unpardonable sin to a Hindoo, while to protect it is one of the highest virtues. Beasts, birds, reptiles, and insects are as much the object of the Hindoo's kindness as human kind. The Hindoos of the higher castes never take flesh. They live entirely on milk and vegetables. Hindoos of certain sects take meat, but they would not eat it unless it be of a goat, sacrificed before a god or goddess. They would never think of shooting a bird or killing a beast.

The look upon the European practice of shooting and hunting as barbarous. They distribute rice and corn to crows and other birds every day. India is the land of snakes, most of them being of the most venomous kind. But the Hindoos are not less warm in their kindness toward these creatures. Snakes that have taken shelter in a Hindoo's house are never killed by the inmates. They are regarded as guests, and allowed to wander in the house unmolested and untouched.

You Shi! Cure that cough with Collins' Cherry Cough Cure. It will do it. Prentice & Evenson, the druggists opposite the post office, warrant every bottle. It contains no opium, and for children is the only safe remedy in the market. Try it. Price, 50 cents.

—According to the advices received from the United States secret service there are a number of counterfeits in circulation through the west. One is a counterfeit five dollar gold piece, dated 1885 and made in imitation of the coinage from the Philadelphia mint. It has a good appearance but is a light weight Another counterfeit is five dollar gold piece dated 1861 and also made in imitation of the Philadelphia coinage. It is a light weight and thinly plated but is well cast. These two are in somewhat limited circulation but there is one which the department wishes to especially warn people in the west of. It is a counterfeit of the gold two dollar and a half piece and is dated 1843. A number of them have been passed in this and the surrounding states, as the coin is hard to detect.

—The last firm organized in this city is that of Dunwiddie & Golden, who will occupy the office formerly used by Norcross & Dunwiddie, the latter firm having been dissolved. Capt. Dunwiddie has therefore taken up the firm's business, and associating with him Theodore W. Golden, Esq., of Monroe, will continue to do good service for his clients. Mr. Golden comes to this city well acquainted with many members of the bar, as he has been for several years clerk of the Green county court. He is a young man of fine education, has had much training in legal matters, and possesses withal a great deal of energy. He is very popular among members of the bar in Monroe, and will undoubtedly succeed in the profession.

—The common council last evening instructed the fire department committee, consisting of Ald. McLean, Croft and Burnham, to purchase two horses for use in the fire department, in other words to draw the new hose carriages. Heretofore the men belonging to the hose companies have provided their own horses, which now prove too light for the work required. The new carriages with one thousand feet of hose and the driver will weigh 3,500 pounds—less than half the weight of either engine. The carriages were taken out last evening having horses weighing at least 1,500 pounds attached, one of the carriages besides the thousand feet of hose and driver, had five men on the seat and foot board, and it was practically demonstrated that the horse was able to take the carriage with this load to any point that a single team could take the engine. The committee, we understand, will not make a purchase until they are satisfied they have selected horses capable of doing the work required of them.

—Ex-Sheriff H. L. Skavlem is up at Mayville, Dakota, attending to business matters. It seems, from the following clipped from the Mayville Tribune, that our ex-sheriff is having a high time with his little Winchester rifle: "Our city butchers state that they intend to have an injunction granted prohibiting our friend Skavlem from hunting. They say he goes out so often and his luck is so great that he nearly keeps the town supplied with game, and consequently their meat sales have fallen off. So long as the Capt keeps the court well supplied with choice toothsome geese, we will try mighty hard to stay off the injunction. Editors always have a liking for game. Our friend, Capt. Skavlem, aware of this natural appetite of the fraternity for something good to eat walked into our office Monday and presented us with a fine fat wild goose. This is goose number two we have received from this generous sportsman this fall, and we hereby rise up and bow our sincere acknowledgement of thanks. The Capt, in company with Mr. J. H. Hicks, succeeded in bagging nine geese and a number of ducks."

SIXTY-FIFTH BIRTHDAY.

A Pleasant Surprise Party at Judge Bennett's Residence.

The home of Judge and Mrs. John R. Bennett, Milton avenue, was the scene of the largest, most social and pleasant birthday surprise party which has assembled in this city in many days, the occasion being the celebration of the sixty-fifth birthday of Hon. John R. Bennett, judge of the twelfth judicial circuit. Mrs. Bennett instigated the party as a social surprise to her husband upon his attaining his sixty-fifth year. Mrs. Bennett sent invitations to many prominent members of the bar in the state several of whom responded in person, while many sent their compliments and regrets. The party assembled at Judge Bennett's residence at eight o'clock, and were most cordially received by Mrs. John R. Bennett and sister, assisted by Mrs. Pliny Norcross and Mrs. John Winans. There were present from abroad Judge Winslow, of Racine; Col. G. W. Bird, of Jefferson; Hon. Harlow Pease, of Watertown; Hon. L. B. Caswell, and W. D. Hoard, of Fort Atkinson; P. J. Slawson, district attorney, and A. S. Douglass, of Monroe, a large number of the members of the Rock county bar residing in this city, and a number of citizens, intimate friends of the judge. Between eight and nine o'clock, when the company had all assembled and exchanged greetings, order was called, and B. B. Eldredge, Esq., of this, stepped forward and addressed Judge Bennett as follows:

JUDGE JOHN R. BENNETT: Some of your most intimate friends and neighbors now present, who have known you many years and been cognizant of your public official acts, have requested me from among the oldest of your associates in this community, to present to you on this occasion of the sixty-fifth anniversary of your birth, this token of their sincere appreciation of your character for many public and private virtues, and as an appropriate emblem of the continuance of their esteem to the end of life. It being indissolubly linked together from end to end, in perfect unison shows the care and skill of the artisan by whom it was forged, and is typical of that unison in the chain of life of Him who in all things acts justly and judges wisely. Take it, and wear it upon and over your heart, in remembrance of the many donors thereof, your firm friends, who will ever rejoice in being permitted to share your friendship.

Judge Bennett made an appropriate reply, alluding to his long residence in this city, his connection with the bar and bench, and in feeling terms accepted the token of esteem with thanks.

The party then sat down to a most elegant and sumptuous banquet, in honor of the occasion. Ogden H. Fethers, Esq., was elected master of ceremonies, and after the choice viands of the table had been thoroughly discussed to the satisfaction of the inner man, the speech making commenced, and was kept up until midnight. Speeches were made by Judge Winslow, of Racine, who also read a letter from Judge Dyer, of the U. S. court, regretting his absence; W. D. Hoard, and Harlow Pease, of Watertown; G. W. Bird, of Jefferson. Hon. L. B. Caswell, of Jefferson; P. J. Slawson and A. S. Douglass, of Monroe; Dr. J. B. Whiting and Captain Pliny Norcross, and many others were called out, and the good feast was full of intellectual cheer, and the occasion one which will long be remembered by Judge Bennett and those who took part in so happily celebrating his sixty-fifth birthday.

INSURANCE RATES.

The Topic of Discussion at the Business Men's Meeting Last Evening.

The Report of the Special Committee on Rates.

The regular monthly meeting of the Business Men's association was held last evening, the only topic of discussion of public importance being the rate of insurance in Janesville.

The committee on insurance stated that they had made a careful investigation in Chicago, on the 23 of October, and were referred by the board of underwriters to the Wisconsin board.

The committee were satisfied that the only way to secure lower rates of insurance was by encouraging non board companies. Mr. Silas Hayner, of the firm of Dimock & Hayner, stated that fire insurance throughout the state of Wisconsin had not been profitable to the companies represented for a series of years, in the city of Janesville the entire premiums collected last year, amounted to about $35,000, while the losses paid aggregated $24,000. Add to this last amount 33 per cent. for expenses, which represents the actual cost, and the companies close business at an actual loss. In regard to this year's business, Mr. Hayner stated that up to the present date the companies had been more fortunate, but the remaining two months of the year may absorb the present profits, and very much more. A careful investigation of the business in Janesville for a series of years, would disclose the fact that the companies had not made two per cent on their local business. Insurance companies like all other corporations or business houses claim the right to make prices.

The relation that exists between insurance and the mercantile world is of such a character that indemnity is demanded, and the rates for insurance are based upon knowledge gained by long experience and calculated to furnish absolute protection.

The committee presented the following report which was received and placed on file. The matter will be more fully discussed at a special meeting to be held at the rooms Thursday evening, November 12th.

JANESVILLE, Oct. 26, 1885.

MR. PRESIDENT AND GENTLEMEN.—Your committee to whom was referred the subject of insurance rates in Janesville, have had the matter under consideration, and respectfully submit the following facts for consideration:

On the 23d ultimo we visited the leading insurance agents, and managers prominently connected with the board, and non board companies in Chicago. The only result we were able to obtain, after fully presenting your claim to the board companies, was an order referring the matter to the Wisconsin State Board of Underwriters, as will appear from the annexed letter, from Mr. J. O. Griffiths, secretary of the "Wisconsin Fire Underwriters' Union," and Mr. F. W. Letton, of Chicago. On receiving this letter, one of the committee called on Mr. Whitford, who stated that some changes had been made in the rates, but that these changes would be given to the public through the local agents in Janesville. The committee have received no further communication from Mr. Whitford, and have no reason to expect that any further information will be handed down from that high source.

The rigid compact formed in Chicago by the board companies doing business in Janesville, leave but little hope that any relief can be had in that direction. Every agency in our city is under their supreme control. Every policy issued by an agent of any company doing business here must pass the eye of the Beloit manager, for the sole purpose of preventing all honest competition among companies doing business in our city, and thereby making every Janesville insurance agent a mere amanuensis.

The great want this city is one or more good independent insurance agencies. Such as could not be gobbled up by any syndicate in Chicago or elsewhere. Then let every member of this Association refuse to do business with any company connected with a combination, and within a short time every Janesville agency would have its own manager.

The committee finds good companies represented in Chicago, independent of this compact, where insurance can be effected at about two-thirds the rates demanded by our board agents, and we recommend that such independent agencies in Chicago be consulted until such time as we can obtain relief at home.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A. E. BURKEE,
C. W. HODSON,
WM. D. MCKEY,
Committee.

While this matter of insurance is exciting public attention and many of our business men feel that our local rates are burdensome, the fact is worth considering that the quality of the protection furnished is gilt edged and we are absolutely secure, as far as indemnity is concerned. The capital invested by fire insurance companies in the United States is fabulous in amount, and statistics show that much of this capital is earning less than simple interest. It may be possible to flood the city with a class of irresponsible companies who are willing to furnish promises to pay at a nominal price. Absolute protection is cheaper and better than uncertainty at any price. The most practical plan to reduce insurance rates is a complete system of water works, which invariably result in less money being paid for insurance.

Lappin's Opera House.

The Blanche Melville theatrical company commenced their week's engagement at the above-named popular place of amusement last evening, presenting the familiar play of the "Hidden Hand." The company was greeted by a fair audience, all of whom appeared to be well pleased with the performance. The star of the company, Miss May Bretonne, appeared last evening as "Capitola," in which she won much applause. The "Hidden Hand" will be repeated this evening, and with the popular low prices, 10—20 and 30 cents, the house will be filled.

Hex Exhibition.

Miss Filz exhibition is usually given in two parts, with a complete change of costume for each part. Her superiority consists more in the finished execution of legitimate movements than [doing what is known to experts as trick] steps.

Among some of her difficult movements are single and double grapevines on flat foot and toes. Philadelphia twist on same. Grapevines on heels. Picket fence on toes, scissors on toes with spin. Waltz movements on flat foot and toes. Single and double toe, draw and cork screw spins. Flying threes and mercurys. In executing these many moves, she always retains that grace which she is celebrated for, never showing the slightest exertion in doing them.

At the rink Thursday evening. Admission 15 cents.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

Regular Meeting of the Common Council.

The New Hose Carriages Accepted—Two Horses for the Fire Department.

Other Routine and Miscellaneous Business.

A regular meeting of the common council was held last evening—His Honor, Mayor Winans, in the chair—all the aldermen answering to their names except Ald. Judd, Rooney and Shearer.

The journal of the last meeting read and approved.

Pending the reading of the journal Ald. Rooney came in and took his seat.

Mayor Winans stated that Mr. A. D. Baldwin had made complaint to him of a defective sidewalk in front of the "Sleeper homestead" on Ruger avenue, third ward. The matter was referred to the aldermen of the third ward.

The city marshal's report for the month of October was read, showing fees earned $7.30. Referred to police committee, found correct and placed on file.

The October report and monthly statement of the judge of the municipal court was presented, referred to judiciary committee, found correct and placed on file.

The October report of the Board of Education, showing expenditures for the month of $3,373.72, was read, referred to the committee on schools, found correct, ordered published and placed on file.

The application and bonds of P. Malone to do business under the liquor license issued to Alex Kane; M. Boub for the transfer of the license issued to John Boub; John Dawson for the transfer of the license issued to R. Steinberger, were read, referred to license and judiciary committees, and upon favorable reports, the same were severally granted.

A large number of bills were read by the clerk, and appropriately referred.

Ald. Croft, of the finance committee, reported in favor of allowing bills against the various funds as follows:

General fund	$210 55
First ward fund	72 42
Second ward fund	30 95
Third ward fund	119 34
Fourth ward fund	261 77
Fifth ward fund	90 52
Fire department fund	40 30
Bridge fund	8 70
Gas	613 90
Total	$1,157 76

The report was concurred in.

Ald. Croft, of the finance committee reported the city treasurer's report for October as correct. Placed on file.

Ald. Daly, of the judiciary committee, to whom had been referred the matter, reported in favor of allowing F. E. Pellant $2.80, on account of error in the assessment of his property. Adopted.

Ald. Judd came in and took his seat.

Ald. McLean, of the fire department committee, stated that the new hose carriages had arrived; that they had been carefully inspected by the fire department committee and chief engineer, and so far as they could see were in first class order, and according to specifications and contract, and moved that they be accepted by the council. Adopted.

Ald. McLean, an order authorizing the clerk to draw an order on the fire department fund, for $1,150, in favor of the Silsby Manufacturing company, in payment of the hose carriages. Adopted.

Ald. McLean stated that the horses now owned by the hose companies were too light to haul the new carriages, and there was no good reason why the city should ask the companies to furnish horses for use by the fire department and moved that the fire department committe be instructed to purchase two suitable horses for use on the hose carriages, stating that there was sufficient money in the fire department fund to warrant such purchase.

Ald. Daly moved as an amendment, that the purchase be made subject to the approval by the council.

The question was put on the amendment, which was lost. Ayes 3, nays 6. Ald. Daly, Fathers and Judd, voting aye.

The original motion was then put and adopted. Ald. Daly and Judd voting no.

On motion of Ald. McLean, the matter of arranging for the lighting of the gas lamps in front of the engine house, was referred to the gas committee, to make arrangements with the gas company, etc.

Ald. Daly—that the street commissioner build a tile culvert across Jackson street on the north side of Pleasant street. Adopted.

Ald. Croft—an order providing for the payment of the freight on the new hose carriages, $61.60. Adopted.

Ald. Croft—for a crossing across the alley in the rear of the Myers block on North Franklin street. Adopted.

Mr. Craven was heard in relation to assessment for the extension of South Jackson street, complaining that he had been over-assessed, and asking the council to investigate the matter. Referred to the highway, street and bridge committee.

Ald. Croft called attention to the condition of the planking on the Monterey bridge, and suggested that the street commissioner place "that bridge on his list of casualties," and that to visit it occasionally, and see to replacing the broken planks.

Ald. Lennartz wanted to hear from the street commissioner in relation to the collection of the poll tax.

Ald. McLean suggested that it was hardly right for the street commissioner to neglect the collection of the tax until midwinter, when people liable to pay are all out of employment. It should be attended to in the summer time, when all had work and money.

Street Commissioner Cunningham stated that he had been so busy all summer that he had been unable to find time to make the collection, but now that work was slack, he proposed to devote time to the collection of the tax. He stated that he had succeeded in collecting one dollar.

The council adjourned.
